at the Book Room, London Mission,

ABOUT six o'clock yesterday evening fire broke out in the Western district of the city of Canton and burned fiere ly all night. Several streets were destroyed and not less than two hundred houses were burned down. In the portion of the city wherethe fire broke out there are a large number of big shops, and the less of property is very great. It was daylight this morning before the flames were extinguished. About the same time as this fire began, another fire broke out at a place called Tim Hongkong, China, and Manila. 1184 To Tau near Chim Hau (Prays) on the Eastern side of Honam. It was, however, The publication of this usue commenced of a less extensive character, only about ten houses being consumed. The fact of the two outbreaks occurring simultaneously suggests the suspicion that the fires were the work of incendiaries.

THE CAPTURE OF SUPPOSED PINATES AT

Lam Tal and seven others were charged with being found armed in equipped for the purpose of piracy at Shaukiwan on 9th October. They pleaded not guilly and the following gentlemen were sworn as a jury : Messre W. J. Vine H. A. do Rozario, S. S. Benjamin, T. H. Dalby, R. G. Shewan, A. C. da Silva and F. X. Ribeiro.

The Acting Attorney General said the prisoners were charged with being found on board two bosts at a place near Shaukiwan, which boats were equipped for the purpose of piracy. On the 9th Octopor the police went to a placequite close to Shaukiwan where they saw two boats lying at anchor. They first boarded one of the boats and arrested the first four prisoners, and on board the boat they found muskets, revolvers, two pistols, powder, bullets and caps. The police took the men to the Police Station at Shaukiwan. They then went back and boarded the other boat which was lying about twenty yards from where the first one was. On this boat they ar rested five men, and on board the boat they found stinkpots, muskets. volvers, lins of powder, bullets an cartridges. These five were also arrested and locked up. The connection suggested between the two boats was this. They were lying close together, and the probability was they were there for some un lawful purpose. One of the witness would tell the jury that one of the first lot of prisoners was connected with a burglary in the witness's house on the Chinese side The same witness identified one of the revolvers found in the possession of the prisoners as one that was in his house at the time of the burglary. These were the facts on which the jury would be asked to assume that these two boats were equipped in finding that the weapons found were intended for the purpose of piracy. The Acting Attorney General said that was a difficulty, but he thought it might fairly enough be inferred. His Lordship said he did not think it was a matter he would be justified in leaving to

His Lordship said there was a difficulty

The Attorney General, after some further discussion, said he would enter nolle prosequi in regard to this charge. Afterwards four of the prisoners were charged with escaping from lawful custody and shooting at a police officer.

The Acting Attorney General said the circumstances under which this charge was brought were as follows. The prisoners on being arrested on the former charge were placed in a cell in the Police Station at Shaukiwan, and while a light was being brought the door of the cell being meanwhile open a shot was fired and a bullet struck Inspector Hanson on the left hand, and the prisoners immediately made a rush and succeeded in getting away from the station. The four now in the dock were rearrested by the police that night, but the fifth man had not been found again. The evidence of Inspector Hanson, and constables Brudie and Miner and a Chinese policeman, was heard. The prisoners said it was the man who had got away that fired the shot, and when he rushed out they followed him:

The Hien quickly came down and placed the ladies in safe keeping in the yamen. The Hien is reported. in his harangue to the crowd, after having advised them to quietly dis perse, to have said, 'These foreigners have right by treaty to preach Jesus here, and if you want to believe in Him and enter the Church you can. I am an official and do not believe in Him, indeed I heartily letest Him.' As soon as he had uttered these words the mob began their work and utterly demolished the property, leaving absolutely nothing intact. They then passed by my chapel to the opium refuge, crected by the U.I.M., and destroyed it. The Fu was here in his chair, attempting to quell the mob, but they smashed his chair and stoned him so that he had to fly to his yamen to save his life. It was now about 8 o'clock at night, and the ladies were safe in the Yamen. Six arrests were made, two being saits'ai; these were thrown into prison. The mob threatened to tear it down, but when they found they could not do this, they attempted to find the two native preschers, intending to hold them prisoners until the two literary men were released. But the China Inland Mission preacher was effectually concealed, and my assistant after neveral narrow escapes made his way to the yamen. Up to this time the Methodist chapel had not been touched. Before daylight next morning my assistant determined to come direct to Kinkiang, 30 miles distant. He would in ordinary cases have from Kinkiany, but he reasoned that in all probability men would be lying in wait there for him, so he went out of the east gate. Before day had broken thousands and thousands of excited rioters were passing hither and thither, and at dawn they made a descent on the Methodist chapel and in a short time reduced it to a total wreck. In the meantime the ladies had been sent on under escort to their Sanitorium at Ta-ku-t'an. These riots are becoming too frequent On Berlinoverywhere; what is the meaning of them? Are the Chipese officials hoping by steadily. pursuing this policy to drive foreigners out of the interior? The time of the examinations is always a signal for a disturbance. On Bombay-The officials could easily control these riots if they really wished; if it were proclaimed that in every place where the students lioted no degrees would be granted, we should. I think, hear no more of riots. How long is this kind of thing to be per-| mitted to go on !

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN CHINA.

We mentioned a fortnight ago that there was a feeling of great uneasiness in Poking in St. Louis, covering all the bagging inter- as to the stability of things in China. It is very difficult to get information which can be called at all accurate of what is actually going on in the Court at Peking, and the foreign residents at the capital know cenerally less about local affairs than the outside world, or if they do know, will not confess their knowledge. It is understood, howover, that there is a serious split in the Imperial family, but the relations are so inbefore, the calumities that have followed the Emperor-is reported to be on had terms with his aunt, on account of his dissatisfac-

OHEFOO.

The extraordinary disappearance of Mr. Colin Jamieson, since the afternoon of 31st October, still remains a mystery.

It is now six days since he was seen and I think it can truly be said that such a marvellous occurrence as this is not in the recollection of the oldest resident in China; Three days ago at evening time a great for this person has vanished, as it were, from the face of the earth, without leaving the remotest trace of his whereabouts and is still missing notwithstanding the cesseless efforts which are being made far and wide to find him.

His disappearance caused a profound sonsation during the first few days amongst the foreigners here, and even the Chinese -at all times difficult to astound-are waking up to the fact, which is so grave to the magistrate presiding over this city, that it is a mandarin who has been lost, and furthermore one holding rank equivalent to that of their own Taotai. -N.-C.
